5) Although this is an appointment required to be made by the Rajapramukh and the appointment is held at the pleasure of the Rajapramukh, the exact procedure to be followed in such cases is nowhere laid down, and is apparently regulated by conventions. In the circumstances, there seems to be no objection to the Council making a recommendation in this behalf.

6) According to the Madras Government Business Rules and Secretariat Instructions- 17(i)(a) - a case containing proposals for appointment by the Government of the Advocate-General is submitted to the Premier through the concerned Minister or Ministers and the case is also submitted to the - Governor.
